Indiana Bankers Sponsor Signature Event for Women Clientele

Elkhart and Goshen, IND. – (Oct. 14, 2011) – Forty-four women attended the recent Women, Wisdom and Wine signature networking seminar sponsored by Indiana Community Bank at the Four Arts Building in Elkhart.

Held on Oct. 13, the seminar featured a breast cancer awareness presentation by Laura L. Morris, M.D., breast surgeon and medical director of The Retreat, which is the name of Indiana University Health's women's center in Goshen.

The presentation was followed by a fashion show featuring bank employees modeling women's clothing from a bank customer's store. The employee models were Tia Buss, Kayla Craig, Karen Hoover, Tina Kilmer, Bev Miller and Debbie Schmidt, the fashions came from Jules Boutique in downtown Goshen.

Shannon Klein, the retail manager at the bank's Elkhart Office, welcomed the guests and introduced Dr. Morris, while Kilmer, the retail manager of the bank's Goshen Office, emceed the fashion show.

Kilmer said guests sampled wine before a catered dinner was served. A free drawing was held to give away "pink" gifts, such as a lavender eye pillow decorated with a pink ribbon design, a pink sleep mask, a cocktail set with pink lemonade vodka and pink polka dot martini glasses, as well as a box of chocolates from the Olympia Candy Kitchen in Goshen.

The table decorations of fall arrangements in pumpkin holders were also given away in the free drawing.

Held twice a year, Indiana Community Bank's next Women, Wisdom and Wine networking event is scheduled for next April.
